

LASALLE.

A startling story of two men who so closely resembled each other that the wife of one of them couldn't tell them apart, is told in "The Man Who Lost Himself," at the Lasalle today, with William Faversham playing the leading dual role. The hero was penniless and in a strange country—then he awoke one morning to find himself surrounded by wealth and possessed of another man's title and wife. One of the greatest stories of dual personality ever written. A fitting role for America's greatest actor.

Tomorrow, comes Arline Pretty in "The Valley of Doubt," a stirring story of the far north.

CASTLE.

"The Valley of Doubt," today's pictured attraction at the Castle, is a story of virile men and a woman's undying love. A story as strong as the rugged snow covered mountains where its red-blooded characters live, love and hate. A cast of established screen favorites, headed by clever Arline Pretty and in the presentation. The scenes of the far northwest are the most fascinating to ever reach the picture screen.

Tomorrow, William Faversham will be seen in "The Man Who Lost Himself."

AUDITORIUM.

The Auditorium is to the front today with the sort of story that never fails to grip man's attention. It is called "The Pinch Hitter," and features that great favorite Charles Ray. As a baseball classic, the picture is said to be in a class by itself, and is an admirable vehicle for Charles Ray. Today's chapter of "The Black Secret" serial with Pearl White, brings this popular continued story two weeks nearer its close. Fox News is of unusual interest today.

Seldom has an actor won over so many of the amusement going public in such a short time as has Will Rogers. He will be seen here tomorrow in "Almost a Husband," said to be one of his funniest comedy-dramas. Hank Mann in "Broken Bubbles," a two-reel racing comedy and Pathe News complete the bill.

CHARLES RAY

IN TODAY'S LINEUP AS

"THE PINCH HITTER"

The greatest baseball comedy-drama ever made, and a picture in which everybody's favorite, Charles Ray, appears to greatest advantage. Come, cheer "The Pinch Hitter" as he bats his team to victory. You'll cheer like mad. Also PEARL WHITE in "THE BLACK SECRET" serial, only 3 more, and FOX NEWS. One great show today, folks. Everybody come early. Prices 10, 17, 22 cents, with tax included. COMING EVERY FRIDAY, STARTING FRIDAY, JULY 9, "THE LOST CITY," GREATEST OF ALL EXISTING SERIALS, AND THE ONLY WILD ANIMAL SERIAL IN MOTION PICTURES.

TOMORROW—Popular WILL ROGERS, comedian de luxe, in "ALMOST A HUSBAND," a six-reel comedy-drama scream; Hank Mann in "BROKEN BUBBLES," two-reel comedy, and PATHE NEWS.

SUNDAY—Thousands packed this theater at every performance last Sunday to see JACK DEMPSEY, the world's heavyweight boxing champion, in his great serial, "DARE-DEVIL JACK." You are still in time to start with it, and his popularity promises to keep the big crowds coming every Sunday. Don't let your interest lag. Remember, Jack Dempsey is the talk of the country today.

MONDAY AND TUESDAY—Our advice is to come early in the day, because with DOROTHY PHILLIPS in "PAID IN ADVANCE," sensational Alaska drama, and funny FATTY ARBUCKLE in "THE HAYSEED," we have an attraction that will pack the house day and night. It's some show.
